July 9, 2018

Denver, CO

Welcome

Greg Scates, Director

Office of Outreach and Small Business
Liaison

Caveat

One of the benefits of today's session is that you will hear firsthand from numerous PCAOB staff members. You should keep in mind, though, that when we share our views they are those of the speaker alone, and do not necessarily reflect the views of the Board, its members or staff.

Learning Objective and Course Description

Learning Objective

To discuss important information concerning PCAOB activities with registered accounting firms that audit public companies operating in the small business community. The forum also provides an opportunity for Board members and PCAOB staff to hear comments, concerns and questions from auditors. More specifically, the forum features a panel discussion on revenue recognition under ASC 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers. A case study will be presented and facilitated by PCAOB staff from the Division of Registration and Inspections and the Office of the Chief Auditor, and will focus on auditing revenue under ASC 606. Other discussion topics include: key inspection findings, an update on the auditor's report, remediation, auditor independence, a standard setting update, and an enforcement update. In addition, staff from the Securities and Exchange Commission's (SEC) Office of the Chief Accountant will join us to provide an update on SEC activities.

Course Description

The PCAOB Forum on Auditing in the Small Business Environment is a one-day session that will offer attendees the opportunity to interact with the PCAOB and learn more about its programs and activities, primarily with respect to triennially inspected registered firms.

Overview of ASC 605 'Legacy GAAP'

Core Principle

Revenue should not be recognized until it is realized or realizable and earned. Revenue generally is realized or realizable and earned when all of the following criteria are met:

- Persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists
- Delivery has occurred or services have been rendered
- The seller's price to the buyer is fixed or determinable
- Collectability is reasonably assured

Overview of ASC 606

Core Principle

“An entity shall recognize revenue to depict the transfer of promised goods and services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods and services.”

Case Study – We Build Trailers, Inc.

Case Study

Background

Your firm has been engaged to audit the financial statements of We Build Trailers, Inc. (the “Company”) for the year ending December 31, 2018, and to review the Company’s interim financial information to be included in its quarterly filings in 2018. The Company, the largest audit client of your firm, manufactures concession trailers to a variety of customers in the U.S. The Company has been a client of your firm for a number of years.

The following relates to the Company’s operations for 2018:

- ❑ The Company adopted ASC 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers, as of January 1, 2018, using the modified retrospective method
- ❑ The Company sells its concession trailers for prices in the range of $45,000 to $75,000.

Background (cont'd)

- ❑ Title to a concession trailer is transferred to the customer at the Company's manufacturing plant upon pick-up.
- ❑ Payment terms are as follows: (1) generally 30% of the price of the trailer is due at the date the trailer is placed into production and (2) the remainder is due upon delivery of the trailer. Each trailer takes approximately 30 days to manufacture.
- ❑ The Company provides price concessions for those customers ordering more than five trailers in a twelve-month period. (i.e. upon the sixth purchase, the discount would be applied to all purchases during that twelve-month period, including being retroactively applied to the first five purchases).

Background (cont'd)

- ❑ The Company also offers an optional service for an additional fee in the range of $3,000 to $5,000, whereby the Company provides initial set-up and training for operation of the trailer to the customer's employees at the customer site ("Set-up Service"), which is provided within 30 days of customer receiving the trailer.
- ❑ Set-up Service is typically purchased by first-time customers, which represented approximately 42 percent of all trailer sales in 2017. Payment is due upon delivery of service, and price concessions do not apply.

Background (cont'd)

- ❑ The audit partner and other members of the 2018 engagement team have not worked on an audit engagement that included the initial adoption of ASC 606.
- ❑ An audit of internal control over financial reporting is not required.
- ❑ It's now April 2018. Your firm is planning the audit and has already completed its interim review for the Company's first quarter.
- ❑ You, the audit partner, have asked the audit manager to provide you with their assessment of risks related to auditing revenue of the Company.

Case Study – Scenario 1

Background

- The audit manager recommends using a similar risk assessment that was used for the 2017 audit, as there haven't been any significant changes to the Company's operations over the past year, and none are expected in 2018. That risk assessment is as follows:

	Inherent Risk	Control Risk	Risk of Material Misstatement	Fraud Risk or Other Significant Risk?
Existence or Occurrence (EO)	High	Low	High	✓
Completeness (CO)	Low	Low	Low
Valuation or Allocation (VA)	Low	Low	Low
Rights and Obligations (RO)	Low	High	Low
Presentation & Disclosure (PD)	Low	High	Low

Background (cont'd)

- ❑ Consistent with the prior year, the audit manager indicated there was a fraud risk related to the occurrence of revenue. This was due principally to the fact that the CFO indicated in the Q1 earnings call that the Company anticipates 10 percent revenue growth in 2018.
- ❑ The audit manager also indicated that using a risk assessment similar to last year seemed appropriate given the following:
  - ❑ There have been no significant changes in the Company's operations during 2018.
  - ❑ The CFO indicated in April 2018 that the adoption of ASC 606 had, thus far, had little impact on the Company's revenue recognition during 2018.

Case Study – Scenario 1

Question #1

With the Company adopting ASC 606 using the modified retrospective method, what challenges do you think the Company will face in implementing the provisions of ASC 606?

Case Study – Scenario 1

Question #1 Debrief

Challenges for the Company in implementing ASC 606:

- Determining the opening balance sheet effect of modified retrospective adoption of ASC 606
- Estimating the future obligation of the Company's twelve-month volume price concession program upon adoption of ASC 606 and for post-adoption transactions
- Determining standalone selling price of the Set-up Service
- Disclosure of remaining performance obligations (i.e., backlog)

Question #1 Debrief (cont'd)

Accounting for volume-based discounts or rebates under ASC 605 (Legacy GAAP): ASC 605-50-25-7 states, in part:

A vendor may offer a customer a rebate or refund of a specified amount of cash consideration that is redeemable only if the customer completes a specified cumulative level of revenue transactions or remains a customer for a specified time period. The vendor shall recognize the rebate or refund obligation as a reduction of revenue based on a systematic and rational allocation of the cost of honoring rebates or refunds earned and claimed to each of the underlying revenue transactions that result in progress by the customer toward earning the rebate or refund. Measurement of the total rebate or refund obligation shall be based on the estimated number of customers that ultimately will earn and claim rebates or refunds under the offer (that is, breakage should be considered if it can be reasonably estimated). However, if the amount of future rebates or refunds cannot be reasonably estimated, a liability shall be recognized for the maximum potential amount of the refund or rebate (that is, no reduction for breakage shall be made).

Question #1 Debrief (cont'd)

Accounting for volume-based discounts or rebates under ASC 606 (new GAAP): ASC 606-10-32-8 states, in part:

An entity shall estimate an amount of variable consideration by using either of the following methods, depending on which method the entity expects to better predict the amount of consideration to which it will be entitled:

- a. The expected value
- b. The most likely amount

The constraint – ASC 606-10-32-11 states:

An entity shall include in the transaction price some or all of an amount of variable consideration estimated in accordance with paragraph 606-10-32-8 only to the extent that it is probable that a significant reversal in the amount of cumulative revenue recognized will not occur when the uncertainty associated with the variable consideration is subsequently resolved.

Question #1 Debrief (cont'd)

Determining the standalone selling price – ASC 606-10-32-34 states:

Suitable methods for estimating the standalone selling price of a good or service include, but are not limited to, the following:

- a. Adjusted market assessment approach – An entity could evaluate the market in which it sells goods or services and estimate the price that a customer in that market would be willing to pay for those goods or services. That approach also might include referring to prices from the entity's competitors for similar goods or services and adjusting those prices as necessary to reflect the entity's costs and margins.
- b. Expected cost plus a margin approach – An entity could forecast its expected costs of satisfying a performance obligation and then add an appropriate margin for that good or service.

Question #1 Debrief (cont'd)

Determining the standalone selling price – ASC 606-10-32-34 states:

c. Residual approach – An entity may estimate the standalone selling price by reference to the total transaction price less the sum of the observable standalone selling prices of other goods or services promised in the contract. However, an entity may use a residual approach to estimate, in accordance with paragraph 606-10-32-33, the standalone selling price of a good or service only if one of the following criteria is met:

1. The entity sells the same good or service to different customers (at or near the same time) for a broad range of amounts (that is, the selling price is highly variable because a representative standalone selling price is not discernible from past transactions or other observable evidence).
2. The entity has not yet established a price for that good or service, and the good or service has not previously been sold on a standalone basis (that is, the selling price is uncertain).

Case Study – Scenario 1

Question #2

What are your thoughts on the risk assessment?

	Inherent Risk	Control Risk	Risk of Material Misstatement	Fraud Risk or Other Significant Risk?
Existence or Occurrence (EO)	High	Low	High	✓
Completeness (CO)	Low	Low	Low
Valuation or Allocation (VA)	Low	Low	Low
Rights and Obligations (RO)	Low	High	Low
Presentation & Disclosure (PD)	Low	High	Low

What assertions do you believe should be significant risks?

1. EO and VA
2. EO, CO, and VA
3. EO, VA, and PD
4. All assertions, based on the presumed fraud risk for revenue

What assertions do you believe should be significant risks?

1. EO and VA
2. EO, CO, and VA
3. EO, VA, and PD
4. All assertions, based on the presumed fraud risk for revenue

Case Study – Scenario 1

Question #2 Debrief

- ❑ Risk assessment and planning the audit
  - ❑ Assessment of systems that provide information to allow for measurement of the estimated price concessions (e.g. when customers purchase more than five trailers in a twelve-month period)
  - ❑ Assessment of systems that allow for the bifurcation of revenue when a customer purchases the Set-up Service as well (and allocate revenue based on relative standalone selling prices of each performance obligation)
- ❑ Auditing the transition adjustment
- ❑ Audit committee communications

Relevant Auditing Standards

Risk Assessment

AS 2110, Identifying and Assessing Risks of Material Misstatement, paragraphs .68 and .70 state, in part:

The auditor should presume that there is a fraud risk involving improper revenue recognition and evaluate which types of revenue, revenue transactions, or assertions may give rise to such risks.

To determine whether an identified and assessed risk is a significant risk, the auditor should evaluate whether the risk requires special audit consideration because of the nature of the risk or the likelihood and potential magnitude of misstatement related to the risk.

Note: The determination of whether a risk of material misstatement is a significant risk is based on inherent risk, without regard to the effect of controls.

Relevant Auditing Standards

Risk Assessment (cont'd)

AS 2110, paragraph .71 states:

Factors that should be evaluated in determining which risks are significant risks include:

- a. The effect of the quantitative and qualitative risk factors discussed in paragraph .60 on the likelihood and potential magnitude of misstatements;
- b. Whether the risk is a fraud risk; (Note: A fraud risk is a significant risk)
- c. Whether the risk is related to recent significant economic, accounting, or other developments;
- d. The complexity of transactions;
- e. Whether the risk involves significant transactions with related parties;
- f. The degree of complexity or judgment in the recognition or measurement of financial information related to the risk, especially those measurements involving a wide range of measurement uncertainty; and
- 43 g. Whether the risk involves significant unusual transactions.

Relevant Auditing Standards

Risk Assessment (cont'd)

AS 2110, paragraph .67 states, in part:

The auditor's evaluation of fraud risk factors in accordance with paragraph .65 should include evaluation of how fraud could be perpetrated or concealed by presenting incomplete or inaccurate disclosures or by omitting disclosures that are necessary for the financial statements to be presented fairly in conformity with the applicable financial reporting framework.

Case Study – Scenario 2

Background

- ❑ You, the audit partner, discussed the risk assessment with the audit manager. You both agreed that the risk assessment for inherent risk and fraud risk or other significant risk related to revenue should be:

	Inherent Risk	Fraud Risk or Other Significant Risk?
Existence or Occurrence (EO)	High	✓
Completeness (CO)	Low
Valuation or Allocation (VA)	High	✓
Rights and Obligations (RO)	Low
Presentation & Disclosure (PD)	High	✓

- ❑ You've now asked the audit manager to provide you with a suggested set of audit procedures with respect to substantive testing of revenue. Here's what the audit manager came up with...

Proposed Audit Approach

Obtain the Company's schedule of sales contracts executed during the year. Select all high-dollar contracts and a sample of the remaining contracts and perform the following procedures for each contract:

- (1) examine the sales contract and the P.O. for each trailer and, if applicable, Set-up Service;
- (2) agree the prices from the P.O. to the sales contract and to the sales invoice;
- (3) agree the initial deposit and the final payment to the Company's bank statements;
- (4) examine evidence of customer acceptance of trailer upon pick-up and, if applicable, customer acknowledgement of Set-up Service;
- (5) agree price concessions or any discounts to supporting documentation; and
- (6) recalculate the revenue amount.

Perform testing of credit memos and debit memos issued throughout the year and subsequent to year end related to any adjustments to revenue.

Perform substantive analytical procedures.

Relevant Auditing Standards

Responding to Risks

AS 2301, The Auditor's Responses to the Risks of Material Misstatement, paragraphs .05d and .11 state, in part:

The auditor should evaluate whether the company's selection and application of significant accounting principles, particularly those related to subjective measurements and complex transactions, are indicative of bias that could lead to material misstatement of the financial statements.

For significant risks, the auditor should perform substantive procedures, including tests of details, that are specifically responsive to the assessed risks.

Relevant Auditing Standards

Auditing Estimates

AS 2501, Auditing Accounting Estimates, paragraph .09 states, in part:

In evaluating the reasonableness of an estimate, the auditor normally concentrates on key factors and assumptions that are —

- a. Significant to the accounting estimate.
- b. Sensitive to variations.
- c. Deviations from historical patterns.
- d. Subjective and susceptible to misstatement and bias.

The auditor normally should consider the historical experience of the entity in making past estimates as well as the auditor's experience in the industry. However, changes in facts, circumstances, or entity's procedures may cause factors different from those considered in the past to become significant to the accounting estimate.

Relevant Auditing Standards

Auditing Disclosures

AS 2301, The Auditor's Responses to the Risks of Material Misstatement, paragraph .36 states:

The auditor should perform substantive procedures for each relevant assertion of each significant account and disclosure, regardless of the assessed level of control risk.

AS 2810, Evaluating Audit Results, paragraph .31 states, in part:

As part of the evaluation of the presentation of the financial statements, the auditor should evaluate whether the financial statements contain the information essential for a fair presentation of the financial statements in conformity with the applicable financial reporting framework.

Case Study – Scenario 2

Discussion Question

What are your thoughts on the proposed audit approach to audit revenue?

Case Study – Scenario 2

Debrief

Pricing Concessions

- ❑ The Company's sales contracts with its customers may include pricing concessions, requiring management judgment
- ❑ Under ASC 606, variable consideration, such as this, should be determined using either the “expected value” method or the “most likely amount” method, whichever one is a better indicator of the expected amount.
  - ❑ The Company had previously accounted for these pricing concessions under ASC 605-50-25-7
  - ❑ Did the auditor evaluate this change in accounting estimate in the Company's transition adjustment as of January 1, 2018?
- ❑ Did the auditor evaluate the Company's consideration of a constraint related to the pricing concessions?

Debrief (cont'd)

Set-up Service

- ❑ If a customer purchases the Set-up Service (for an additional fee), the transaction would now have two performance obligations – manufactured trailer and set-up service
  - ❑ Under ASC 605, this Set-up Service would not be recognized as revenue until it is realized or realizable and earned
- ❑ Did the auditor evaluate this change in accounting from ASC 605 to ASC 606 in the Company's transition adjustment as of January 1, 2018?

Debrief (cont'd)

- ❑ Did the auditor obtain an understanding of the processes and controls related to:
  - ❑ Pricing concessions
  - ❑ Allocation of the transaction price between the manufactured trailer and the Set-up Service
- ❑ Note: Even if not an ICFR audit, the auditor should comply with AS 2110.18
- ❑ Were tests of details performed to address all of the significant/fraud risks identified? What did the auditor do to address this? And what about the other assertions? Is there any cut-off or completeness testing being performed?

Debrief (cont'd)

- ❑ New revenue disclosures for quarterly and annual financial statements – Auditor should review the new revenue disclosures in the Company's March 31, 2018 Form 10-Q and audit the new revenue disclosures in the Company's Form 10-K, as required pursuant to ASC 606.
- ❑ What did the substantive analytical procedures entail? Were they in compliance with AS 2305?
- ❑ Did the engagement quality reviewer review the risk assessment and the proposed audit approach?

Relevant Auditing Standards

Review of Interim Financial Information

AS 4105, Reviews of Interim Financial Information, paragraph .22 states:

Extension of interim review procedures. If, in performing a review of interim financial information, the accountant becomes aware of information that leads him or her to believe that the interim financial information may not be in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles in all material respects, the accountant should make additional inquiries or perform other procedures that the accountant considers appropriate to provide a basis for communicating whether he or she is aware of any material modifications that should be made to the interim financial information. For example, if the accountant's interim review procedures lead him or her to question whether a significant sales transaction is recorded in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles, the accountant should perform additional procedures, such as discussing the terms of the transaction with senior marketing and accounting personnel, reading the sales contract, or both, to resolve his or her questions.

- Calculate taking into account firm or company mergers, acquisitions, or changes in ownership structure

Auditor Tenure – Example A

- ❑ The auditor signs the engagement letter in January 2013 to audit a company's financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2010, 2011, and 2012.

New Auditor's Report – Auditor Tenure

- ❑ Reporting of Tenure
  - ❑ Auditors have discretion to present auditor tenure in the part of the auditor's report they consider appropriate.
  - ❑ No required location is specified within the auditor's report.
  - ❑ If there is uncertainty as to the year the auditor began serving as the company's auditor, state that the auditor is uncertain as to the year and provide the earliest year of which the auditor has knowledge.
  - ❑ Auditors can provide additional information in the auditor's report about tenure, if the information would provide context or otherwise assist the reader's understanding of the relationship between the auditor and the company.

Management Reports on ICFR with no Auditor Reporting

- ❑ In some circumstances, management is required to report on the company's ICFR but such report is not required to be audited, and the auditor is not engaged to perform an audit of management's assessment of the effectiveness of ICFR.
- ❑ In such cases, the auditor is required to include the following explanatory language in the Basis for Opinion section:

The Company is not required to have, nor were we engaged to perform, an audit of its internal control over financial reporting. As part of our audits we are required to obtain an understanding of internal control over financial reporting but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion.

Explanatory Paragraphs

- ❑ The standard includes a list of circumstances with references to other PCAOB standards in which the auditor is required to include explanatory paragraph (or explanatory language) in the auditor's report. Those include, among others:
  - ❑ Going concern (AS 2415, Consideration of an Entity's Ability to Continue as a Going Concern);
  - ❑ Other auditors (AS 1205, Part of the Audit Performed by Other Independent Auditors);
  - ❑ Change between periods in accounting principles or in the method of their application (AS 2820, Evaluating Consistency of Financial Statements); and
  - ❑ A material misstatement in previously issued financial statements (AS 2820)
- ❑ Some PCAOB standards specify the location of required explanatory paragraphs within the auditor's report and may also have a requirement for an appropriate section title.
- ❑ If the auditor is required to include an explanatory paragraph but the location is not specified, the paragraph may be placed where the auditor considers appropriate.

Explanatory Paragraph Example

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the shareholders and the board of directors of X Company

Opinion on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying balance sheets of X Company (the "Company") as of December 31, 20X2 and 20X1, the related statements of [titles of the financial statements, e.g., income, comprehensive income, stockholders' equity, and cash flows], for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 20X2, and the related notes [and schedules] (collectively referred to as the "financial statements"). In our opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of [at] December 31, 20X2 and 20X1, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 20X2, in conformity with [the applicable financial reporting framework].

Going Concern

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. As discussed in Note X to the financial statements, the Company has suffered recurring losses from operations and has a net capital deficiency that raise substantial doubt about its ability to continue as a going concern. Management's plans in regard to these matters are also described in Note X. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

Basis for Opinion

Emphasis Paragraphs

- ❑ Although not required, the standard includes the ability for the auditor to emphasize a matter regarding the financial statements (“emphasis paragraph”).
- ❑ Emphasis paragraph may be placed where the auditor considers appropriate.
- ❑ If the auditor includes an emphasis paragraph in the auditor's report, the auditor is required to use an appropriate section title.

What does CAM stand for?

1. Critical Accounting Matter
2. Critical Audit Matter
3. Current Audit Matter
4. Certified Audit Magician

Critical Audit Matters

Phased in effective date for audits of:

- Large accelerated filers – for fiscal years ending on or after June 30, 2019; and
- All other companies to which the requirements apply – for fiscal years ending on or after December 15, 2020.

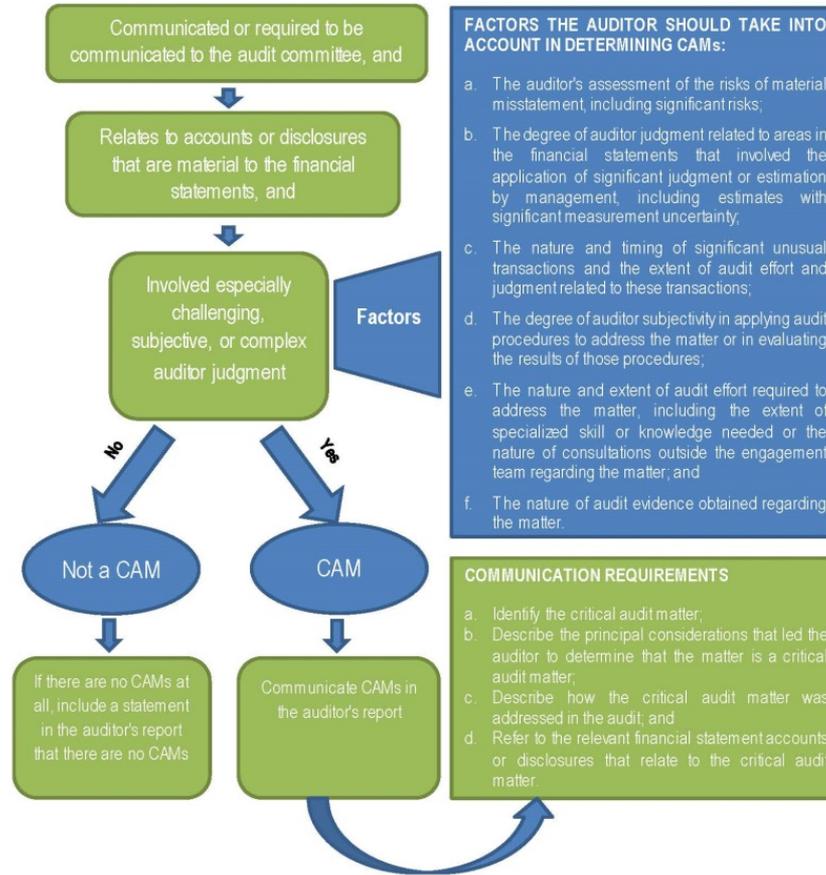

CAM requirements do not apply to audits of:

- Brokers and dealers;
- Investment companies, other than business development companies;
- Employee benefit plans; and
- Emerging growth companies

Auditors of these entities may choose to include CAMs voluntarily.

Critical Audit Matters

Determining and Communicating Critical Audit Matters ("CAMs")

Critical Audit Matters

Definition: A critical audit matter is any matter arising from the audit of the financial statements that was communicated or required to be communicated to the audit committee and that:

- (1) Relates to accounts or disclosures that are material to the financial statements, and
- (2) Involved especially challenging, subjective, or complex auditor judgment.

CAMs are required to be communicated for what period?

1. Current period only
2. Current and prior periods
3. All periods presented in the F/S

CAMs are required to be communicated for what period?

1. Current period only
2. Current and prior periods
3. All periods presented in the F/S

Critical Audit Matters

Audit Period Covered by CAMs:

- ❑ CAMs are required to be communicated for the audit of the current period financial statements only.

- ❑ The auditor may communicate CAMs relating to a prior period when: (1) the prior period's financial statements are made public for the first time, such as in an initial public offering, or (2) issuing an auditor's report on the prior period's financial statements because the previously issued auditor's report could no longer be relied upon.

Critical Audit Matters

Communication requirements: The communication of each critical audit matter in the auditor's report includes:

- a) Identification of the critical audit matter;
- b) Description of the principal considerations that led the auditor to determine that the matter was a critical audit matter;
- c) Description of how the critical audit matter was addressed in the audit; and
- d) Reference to the relevant financial statement accounts or disclosures.

Critical Audit Matters

Communication requirement:

Description of how the critical audit matter was addressed in the audit

The standard includes four examples of potential approaches: (1) the auditor's response or approach that was most relevant to the matter; (2) a brief overview of the procedures performed; (3) an indication of the outcome of the auditor's procedures; and (4) key observations with respect to the matter, or some combination of these elements.

Critical Audit Matters

Ability to Communicate No Critical Audit Matters

- ❑ The Board expects that, in most audits, the auditor will determine that at least one matter involved especially challenging, subjective, or complex auditor judgment. There may be CAMs even in an audit of a company with limited operations or activities.
- ❑ However, there may be circumstances in which the auditor determines there are no matters that meet the definition of a CAM and, in those circumstances, the auditor will communicate that there were no CAMs.

Critical Audit Matters

Documentation Requirement

- ❑ For each matter arising from the audit of the financial statements that:
  - a. Was communicated or required to be communicated to the audit committee; and
  - b. Relates to accounts or disclosures that are material to the financial statements;

the auditor must document whether or not the matter was determined to be a critical audit matter (i.e., involved especially challenging, subjective, or complex auditor judgment) and the basis for such determination.

SEC FAQ – Non-Audit Services

Question 4 (issued August 13, 2003)

Q: For five of the prohibited services (bookkeeping, internal audit outsourcing, valuation services, actuarial services, information system design and implementation), the rules contain the modifier that allows the audit firm to provide these services to an audit client when "it is reasonable to conclude that the results of these services will not be subject to audit procedures during an audit of the audit client's financial statements." The release text discussion indicates that there is a presumption that the services will be subject to audit procedures. Is materiality a basis for determining that it is reasonable to conclude that the services will not be subject to audit procedures (e.g., could the audit firm provide bookkeeping services for a subsidiary that is immaterial to the consolidated financial statements)?

A: No. There is a rebuttable presumption that the prohibited services will be subject to audit procedures. Determining whether a subsidiary, division, or other unit of the consolidated entity is material is a matter of audit judgment. Thus, the determination of whether to apply detailed audit procedures to a unit of the consolidated entity is, in and of itself, an audit procedure. Therefore, materiality is not an appropriate basis upon which to overcome the presumption in making a determination that it is reasonable to conclude that the results of the services will not be subject to audit procedures.

What Does 'Audit Client' Mean?

Rule 2-01(f)(6) defines 'audit client' as follows:

Audit client means the entity whose financial statements or other information is being audited, reviewed, or attested and any affiliates of the audit client, other than, for purposes of paragraph (c)(1)(i) of this Rule 2-01, entities that are affiliates of the audit client only by virtue of paragraph (f)(4)(ii) or (f)(4)(iii) of this Rule 2-01.

What is an 'Affiliate of the Audit Client?'

Rule 2-01(f)(4) defines 'affiliate of the audit client' as follows:

Affiliate of the audit client means:

- (i) An entity that has control over the audit client, or over which the audit client has control, or which is under common control with the audit client, including the audit client's parents and subsidiaries;
- (ii) An entity over which the audit client has significant influence, unless the entity is not material to the audit client;
- (iii) An entity that has significant influence over the audit client, unless the audit client is not material to the entity; and
- (iv) Each entity in the investment company complex when the audit client is an entity that is part of an investment company complex.
